DO's and DON'TS OF PRELIMS EXAM

DO's

Revise Thoroughly: Continuously revise your study material to bring conceptual clarity and consolidate your knowledge base.

Distinguish Facts from Concepts: Analyze the past 10-12 years' UPSC prelims question papers to make an assessment of the types of question

Focus on understanding the basics, which are highly conceptual and high-scoring.

Manage Current Affairs: Dedicate a few hours daily to current affairs from now onwards and regularly revise to avoid last Month stress.

Maintain Pre-Exam Concentration: Your mental state before the test matters significantly.

Allocate daily time for map work and keep revisiting it.

Practice Test Papers: Regardless of your preparation level, work on tests everyday.

Optimize Study Hours: Concentrate intensely during two key slots: 9 am to 12 pm and 2 pm to 5 pm up to the exam.

DON'TS

Don't go after multiple sources: try to limit your sources, stick to basic books with multiple revision

Don't let anxiety take over. Remember, everyone gets the same paper. Stay Calm, Trust Your Prep.

Not following a schedule in a disciplined way.

Don't try to cover everything every day; focus on what you can manage.

Don't skip Practice of OMR Sheet: Practice tests with OMR sheets to reduce errors in filling OMR.

Don't leave questions without reviewing it - Review All Questions. Don't skip questions without looking at the options.

Don't set a predetermined number of questions to attempt. Develop a strategy based on actual level of paper to decide how much questions to attempt.
